Three Additional Suspects Charged with Murder

(Georgetown, SC)---Georgetown County Sheriff's Investigators have arrested three additional suspects this week for the murder of 26-year-old Deon Myers that occurred on March 15, 2011 in the Plantersville Community of Georgetown County. With these arrests and the two arrests from last week, all suspects involved in the murder have been charged.

As it was reported last week, sheriff's investigators charged 21-year-old Camron Lamar Green of 7979 Ole Bellamy Drive, Conway, SC, and 31-year-old Lavern Holmes of 752 Lot Drive, Georgetown, SC. This morning at approximately 3:34 am concluded all of the arrests with 17-year-old Tamar Yaron Bryant. Bryant's arrest followed the arrest of 24-year-old Kawaun Montique Myers and 19-year-old Brandon Tahj Cheek.

Cheek, of 521 Bonds Street, Georgetown, was charged on March 21, 2011 with Murder at the Georgetown County Detention Center after he was arrested by Georgetown City Police for unrelated charges. Myers was arrested at his residence located at 63 Ford Village Road, Georgetown, on March 23, 2011 and charged with Murder. Bryant was arrested this morning at the Budget Inn Motel in Georgetown after sheriff's deputies received a tip and searched for him throughout the city of Georgetown for approximately three hours. Bryant was not a guest at the Budget Inn, that was the location he finally surrendered after continuing to attempt to elude sheriff's deputies.

All suspects in this case are currently being held at the Georgetown County Detention Center awaiting a bond hearing.
