Call Leads to Burglary Suspect Arrest

(Georgetown, SC) ---A call from a victim regarding a suspicious vehicle parked next to their shed resulted in Georgetown County Sheriff's Deputies arresting Gerald Anthony Greene, 47 years of age, of 581 McDonald Road in Georgetown, South Carolina.

At 1:42 p.m. on January 14, 2014, Georgetown County Sheriff's Deputies responded to 68 Ruffin Court off of Highmarket Street approximately five (5) miles from the city of Georgetown in reference to a burglary in progress. The victim confronted the suspect who fled the scene on foot. Sheriff's deputies canvassed the area and located the suspect at 1155 Sollie Circle hiding in some shrubbery. Greene was taken into custody without incident. Greene was also in possession of a van which was reported stolen from Rose Avenue earlier in the day.

Greene is charged with one (1) count of Third Degree Burglary, and one (1) count of Possession of Stolen Property. Greene is currently being housed at the Georgetown County Detention Center awaiting a bond hearing.
