Sheriff's Deputies Search for Burglary Suspects

(Hemingway, SC) --- The Georgetown County Sheriff's Office is asking for the public's assistance in identifying three (3) suspects wanted in connection with a burglary at 4230 Old Pee Dee Road in the Hemingway Community of Georgetown County.

At approximately 3:30 a.m. on March 7, 2014, Georgetown County Sheriff's Deputies responded to the report of a burglary at the Pee Dee Grocery located at 4230 Old Pee Dee Road. The victim stated he was notified by the alarm company about a break in. As he approached the store, the victim observed a small green vehicle with a Johnson Auto Sales paper tag flee from a neighboring road.

Upon arrival on scene, sheriff's deputies observed the front glass door of the building broken. After reviewing the surveillance video, three (3) black male suspects are seen breaking the glass door, entering the building and rummaging through the shelves behind the counter and the coolers.

One (1) suspect was wearing a light colored long sleeve shirt and camouflage pants with a white baseball cap. The second suspect was wearing dark clothing and a white skull cap. The third suspect was wearing a light colored long sleeve shirt, camouflage pants and a light colored newsboy style cap.

Anyone that can identify the suspect in the screen shot or has any information regarding the burglary is urged to call the Georgetown County Sheriff's Office at (843) 546-5101.
