SHERIFF’S OFFICE ARRESTS BURGLARY SUSPECTS

(Georgetown, SC) --- The Georgetown County Sheriff’s Office arrested Travis Deleon Jones and Jade Patrick Tilton for a burglary which occurred off of Pennyroyal Road in Georgetown.

At approximately 12:00 p.m. on June 1, 2016, Georgetown County Sheriff’s Deputies responded to the report of a suspicious vehicle backed into the woods on Creek Bend Drive off of Pennyroyal Road south of Georgetown. Once on scene, sheriff’s deputies located an unoccupied vehicle next to a path in the woods with several pieces of equipment on the ground. One individual exited the woods, was interviewed, and subsequently taken into custody. After seeing sheriff’s deputies, a second individual fled the scene into a wooded area. Sheriff’s deputies pursued the individual into the woods. Upon canvassing the woods and immediate area, an individual was located on the screen porch of a residence. The individual located fit the description of the individual seen fleeing the scene and was also taken into custody.

Through further investigation, sheriff’s deputies determined the equipment was stolen from 306 Sunfish Street.

Travis Deleon Jones, 23 years of age, whose last known address was 409 Cumbie Road in Andrews, South Carolina is charged with one (1) count of Burglary Second Degree. Jade Patrick Tilton, 21 years of age, whose last known address was 2422 Pennyroyal Road, Georgetown, South Carolina is charged with one (1) count of Burglary Second Degree.

Jones and Tilton were transported to the Georgetown County Detention Center where they will be housed pending a bond hearing.
