5 Suspects Apprehended in Connection with a Home Invasion in Georgetown County

(Georgetown, SC) --- Georgetown County Sheriff's Deputies arrested five (5) suspects in connection with a late night home invasion at a residence in the McDonald Community of Georgetown County last night and charged each with Burglary-First Degree.

At approximately 12:45 a.m. on October 12, Georgetown County Sheriff's Deputies spotted a vehicle matching the description and initiated a stop. The individuals in the vehicle matched the description of the suspects and the evidence in the vehicle matched items that were taken from the scene.

The suspects arrested include Denzel Lernard Moyd, 25, of 360 Cedar Creek Road, Andrews, SC, Derrick Lakeith Moyd, Jr., 26, of 2669 County Line Road, Andrews, SC, Dewey Robert Donnelly, 21, of 49 Alton Drive, Andrews, SC, Bobby Eugene Miller, 20, of 965 McDonald Road, Georgetown, SC and Presley Shawn Mitchum, 23, of 2495 County Line Road, Andrews, SC.

The case is still under active investigation and more charges may follow.

The five (5) suspects are currently being held at the Georgetown County Detention Center awaiting bond hearings.
