(February 1, 2026) Sheriff Carter Weaver announces the arrest of a Georgetown County man on multiple drug charges after a traffic stop in Andrews on the evening of February 18.

Ivory Hilton, 31, of Georgetown was charged with one count of Trafficking Cocaine, 28 grams or more; one count of Trafficking

Cocaine Base; two counts of Possession with Intent to Distribute a Schedule I, II or III Substance; Hindering an Officer; and Driving Under Suspension 5th. A deputy noted smoke and the odor of marijuana coming from Hilton's vehicle and attempted a traffic stop. Hilton parked his car in a store parking lot and tried to run into the building but was quickly apprehended. A probable cause search of his car found 32.5 grams of powder cocaine, 15.9 grams of crack cocaine, 61 oxycodone pills, and 33.9 grams of marijuana. Additionally, a large bottle of alcohol and cash were located and itemized.

Hilton is being held in the Georgetown County Detention Center pending a bond hearing.
